

Make Contract Billing Simpler

Managing customer billing is an important process for any company. Simplifying that process and adding greater efficiencies to your billing process can free valuable time for your organization. Finding a way to automate the billing process and remove repetitive procedures that go into cyclical invoicing is one way Azox and Encore Business Solutions can solve your needs.

Encore's Recurring Contract Billing works seamlessly with Azox Credit Card Extension and provides you with the ability to process credit cards for SOP batches created by Encore's Recurring Contract Billing. This solution allows you to save different credit cards with different contracts and facilitate the process of handling recurring orders efficiently.

Enjoy Streamlined Automation and...

- Reduce your time spent managing and fixing bills
- Create repetitive SOP billing batches
- Remove manual processes
- Track down billing problems quicker
- Monitor contract renewal dates in advance

“

It used to take us a minimum of two weeks to close the books at the end of a month whereas now we can close in about three days. Our billing efforts have been reduced by 75%.
